

Froedtert &

MEDICAL COLLEGE of WISCONSIN

Workforce Health Update for Employers

Adapting Your Wellness Program, Again:
What Recent Regulatory Changes Mean

Please join us for a networking breakfast.

Tuesday, September 25, 7:30-9:30 a.m.
Crowne Plaza Milwaukee West

The recent U.S. District Court decision to vacate the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission's (EEOC's) wellness rule has many employers uncertain about wellness program planning for 2019. Join Patti Kneiser, vice president of employer services, and others from the Froedtert & the Medical College of Wisconsin Workforce Health team to discuss the implications for your workforce. Todd M. Cleary, JD, and Thomas N. Shorter, JD, will talk through incentive options for wellness program compliance and accommodations related to the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

Crowne Plaza Milwaukee West

10499 Innovation Drive
Wauwatosa, Wis.

- 7:30 a.m. Registration, breakfast and networking
- 8 a.m. Presentation

Light breakfast and beverages will be served.

RSVP by September 18:

froedtert.com/employer-rsvp

Todd M. Cleary

Todd is a shareholder with Godfrey & Kahn, S.C., located in the Milwaukee office. He serves as team leader of the Employee Benefits Practice Group. Todd's experience with welfare plans includes the design of and compliance with medical plans, wellness programs, cafeteria plans, disability plans and group term life insurance plans.

Thomas N. Shorter

Tom is also a shareholder with Godfrey & Kahn, S.C., located in the firm's Madison office. He serves as team leader of the Healthcare Practice Group.

Tom represents hospitals, physicians' groups, research institutions and health care related organizations, as well as other businesses providing counsel on healthcare, corporate, labor and employment and regulatory matters. Tom regularly handles Medicare compliance, Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), Emergency Medical Treatment and Labor Act (EMTALA), Physician Self-Referral (Stark) and Anti-Kickback for his clients in the health care industry.