Nick Bezier is an associate on Godfrey & Kahn's litigation team. Nick represents a variety of clients with disputes in business contexts and at all stages of litigation, from investigation through appeal.

Nick is a member of Godfrey & Kahn's Distribution and Dealership team and regularly advises clients with legal issues involving dealership or distribution networks. Nick has extensive experience advising clients with rights and responsibilities with the Wisconsin Fair Dealership Law (WFDL) and Wisconsin Motor Vehicle Dealer Law (WMVDL). In cases where litigation relating to the WFDL or WMVDL is unavoidable, Nick effectively advocates for clients in both courts and administrative proceedings. Beyond Wisconsin, Nick routinely assists clients with equipment buyback laws and distribution network management throughout the United States.

Nick also maintains an estate, trust, and fiduciary litigation practice. Nick represents trustees, beneficiaries, and other fiduciaries in proceedings relating to trustee liability, fiduciary removal, undue influence, and lack of testamentary capacity.

Prior to joining the firm, Nick interned with the Honorable William M. Conley, U.S. District Judge for the Western District of Wisconsin. Nick also interned with the Office of the Solicitor General within the Wisconsin Department of Justice.
