Makena Felten is an attorney in the Labor, Employment & Immigration practice group. Makena's practice focuses on advising clients on a wide variety of day-to-day employment matters, including administering federal and state family and medical leave laws, disability accommodations, and wage and hour matters.

While in law school, Makena interned in the legal department of a publicly held entertainment company, where she researched novel legal issues. She also served as an Editor on the Marquette Law Review and volunteered at the Milwaukee Justice Center Family Law Forms Clinic.
