Xavier is an attorney in the Litigation practice. He focuses on data privacy and cybersecurity disputes, as well as commercial litigation, products liability defense, and estate and fiduciary litigation. Xavier has experience handling incident response matters and has assisted clients with handling regulatory obligations related to incidents.

Xavier worked as a summer associate at Godfrey & Kahn for two summers while in law school and was a recipient of the Godfrey & Kahn Fellowship. Xavier is committed to helping others through pro bono efforts. He frequently volunteers at the Marquette Volunteer Legal Clinic and recently represented a plaintiff pro bono before the Eastern District of Wisconsin.
