A former investment banker and capital markets professional, Ryan brings over 20 years of business, financial, and transactional experience to his role. Ryan assists the corporate team with transaction-related support, including project management, due diligence, documentation, financial analysis and modeling, closing execution, post-closing matters, and other special projects. Given his transactional experience and financial acumen, Ryan's unique perspective and skillset contributes to the corporate team's ability to provide best-in-class service to its clients of all sizes.

During his years in investment banking, Ryan advised lower middle-market public and private company clients to raise equity and debt capital, among other advisory engagements. Prior to investment banking, Ryan began his career as a sell-side equity research analyst, publishing research reports covering the small and micro-cap sector for institutional clients.
