Emily McKeown is the Business Development Director and works out of the firm's Milwaukee office.

Emily partners with attorneys throughout the firm to strengthen relationships and enhance the client experience. She works closely with leaders across all offices to build the Godfrey & Kahn brand and work to ensure the firm remains the premier choice for business clients throughout Wisconsin. Emily's work focuses on business development coaching, building client engagement, and strengthening ties between Godfrey & Kahn and the local community.

Emily serves on the firm's Pro Bono and Community Engagement Committee. Prior to joining Godfrey & Kahn, she worked in government administration.
