Jenna Riddle is an attorney in the Litigation practice. Her practice includes representing clients in active litigation, as well as analyzing pre-suit litigation strategy, risks, and exposures. Jenna's practice focuses on antitrust and other aspects of business competition, including trademark, copyright, and trade secrets. Her work also includes client counseling and conducting trainings on antitrust compliance. Jenna has assisted clients in responding to government subpoenas and investigative demands. She has also facilitated internal investigations to gather and develop facts aimed toward reaching efficient resolution.

Before joining Godfrey & Kahn, Jenna served as a law clerk for Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice Patience D. Roggensack. In addition, Jenna was an ABA Steiger Fellow with the Wisconsin Department of Justice, focusing on antitrust and consumer protection issues.
